

January February March April May June July August September October November December

Extended Phase 1 Habitat Survey

 Optimal

 Suboptimal

Protected Species Risk Assessment

Breeding birds

Breeding bird surveys April to June, works should be avoid the nesting season (March to August inclusive). Wintering bird surveys November to February.

Bat Building/Tree Assessment

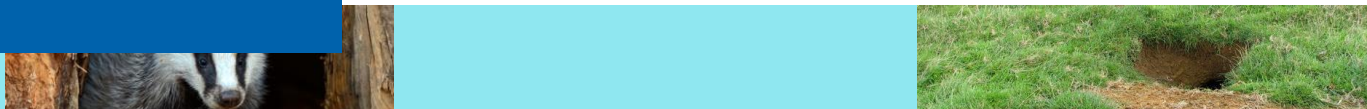

Bat building and tree assessments year round.

Bat Activity Surveys

Bat activity surveys May to September, Hibernation surveys December to February.

Badgers

Sett surveys optimal in Spring and early Autumn.

Great Crested Newts

Great crested newt surveys mid-March to mid-June. Habitat Suitability Index of ponds can be carried out year round.

Reptiles

Reptile surveys can be carried out May to June and September.

Surveys can only be carried out by a suitably qualified ecologist. This survey calendar is not exhaustive and is for guidance only. Results may be affected by the weather conditions on the day of the survey. Surveys are not possible outside indicated months when species may be absent or undetectable.